Dear Mr. White:

This will confirm the statements made in your letter of June 30, 1956 in reference to the Interagency Communications System.

In accordance with present policy the Signal Corps will maintain the Government Owned Microwave System with Army personnel.

Channels on this System assigned for Interagency Communication System use and terminated at High Point will be subject to the policy delineated in my letter of May 24, 1956.

Channels which are allocated solely for your internal and interagency use are not considered a part of the ICS for policy control and are available for such use as your office deems appropriate.

Sincerely yours,

Arthur S. Flemming
